FAFSA Submission Summary Landing Page

The student receives a FAFSA Submission Summary for their processed FAFSA® form and any subsequent corrections that the student submits. The FAFSA Submission Summary is divided into four tabs: "Eligibility Overview," "FAFSA Form Answers," "School Information," and "Next Steps." At the top, the student will see when the FAFSA form was received and processed. The student also has the option to print the FAFSA Submission Summary to keep for their records.

Student  Michelle Allen	Application Received June 20, 2025	Application Processed June 20, 2025	Data Release Number 8720	Viewing: Submission 1
-------------------------	---------------------------------------	--	-----------------------------	-----------------------

At the bottom, there are four tabs: 'Eligibility Overview' (which is selected and underlined), 'FAFSA Form Answers', 'School Information', and 'Next Steps' (which has an information icon).

Eligibility Overview

On the "Eligibility Overview" tab, the student sees information about the federal student aid for which they may be eligible, such as a Federal Pell Grant and Federal Direct Loans. Any amounts of financial aid that display on this tab are estimates and are not guaranteed. The school's financial aid office provides final determination of the student's financial aid eligibility.

Eligibility Overview FAFSA Form Answers School Information Next Steps

Your Estimated Federal Student Aid

Federal Pell Grant You are not eligible for a Federal Pell Grant, but you may be eligible for other aid.	N/A
Federal Direct Loans A federal direct loan is money lent to you by the government that you must repay with interest.	Up to $9,500
Federal Work-Study Federal Work-Study is a way for students to earn money to pay for school through part-time jobs on or off campus.	You May Be Eligible

Amounts shown here are only estimates of federal student aid based on full-time enrollment and the average cost of attendance. Your school will determine how much student aid to offer you, which may include additional aid from your school or state.

Eligibility Overview (Continued)

This is a continuation of the "Eligibility Overview" tab of the FAFSA Submission Summary. The student can view their Student Aid Index. The school's financial aid office provides final determination of the student's financial aid eligibility.

Your Student Aid Index (SAI)

Your SAI is an index number calculated using information provided on your FAFSA form. Your school uses your SAI to determine your federal student aid eligibility and to build your financial aid offer. Your SAI may change if you update or correct your FAFSA information or after verification (if your FAFSA form was selected for review). Once your updated FAFSA form is complete and fully processed, you'll receive a new FAFSA Submission Summary, which may include changes to your SAI and estimated federal student aid.

School Information

On the "School Information" tab, the student sees information about the college(s), career school(s), and/or trade school(s) they selected to receive their FAFSA® information. The student can view graduation rate, retention rate, transfer rate, default rate, median debt upon completion, and average annual cost of the selected school(s).

The screenshot shows the "School Information" tab in the FAFSA application. At the top, there are navigation tabs: "Eligibility Overview", "FAFSA Form Answers", "School Information" (which is selected), and "Next Steps". Below the tabs is a section titled "Find an Affordable School" with a sub-header "Many schools offer the opportunity to attend college affordably. Learn about the costs and benefits associated with the schools you listed on your form." There is a link "Learn About College Scorecard" and a filter "Showing results for family income between $0-$30,000". The main content is a table with the following columns: School Name, Graduation Rate, Retention Rate, Transfer Rate, Default Rate, Median Debt Upon Completion, and Average Annual Cost. The table lists three schools: Ventura Adult and Continuing Education, Tri-Community Adult Education, and West Coast Barber College.

School Name	Graduation Rate	Retention Rate	Transfer Rate	Default Rate	Median Debt Upon Completion	Average Annual Cost
Ventura Adult and Continuing Education	75.89%	96.88%	N/A	0%	$3,920	$10,358

Next Steps

On the "Next Steps" tab, the student sees comments that pertain to their FAFSA® form. Some comments may require the student to make a correction or send additional documentation to their school. Other comments may be informational and require no action from the student.

The screenshot shows the 'Next Steps' tab in the FAFSA portal. At the top, there are navigation tabs: 'Eligibility Overview', 'FAFSA Form Answers', 'School Information', and 'Next Steps' (which is highlighted). The main content area is divided into several sections:

- Next Steps: A list of three items, each with a dropdown arrow on the right:
  - 1 Correct Any Errors on Your FAFSA® Form
  - 2 Make Sure Your Schools Have Everything They Need
  - 3 Look Out for Aid-Related Communications From Your Schools
- For Your Awareness: A section with an information icon and a list of four bullet points:
  - VA Education and Training Benefits help veterans, service members, and their family members with needs like paying college tuition or finding the right school.
  - The limit to the total amount of Federal Pell Grants that a student may receive is the equivalent of six school years. Once you've reached that limit, you can no longer receive a Federal Pell Grant.
  - Based on the information we have on record for you, your Student Aid Index (SAI) is -1500. You may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other federal student aid. Your college's or career school's financial aid office will use your SAI to determine your eligibility for other types of grants, scholarships, work-study funds, and loans.
  - Based on information you provided on your FAFSA form, you may be eligible for other federal benefits not awarded by the U.S. Department of Education. Visit StudentAid.gov/help/means-tested-benefits for more information on federal benefits.
- Understand Your Tax Benefits: A section with a tax icon and a paragraph: "Did you know that the IRS provides tax benefits for education? These tax benefits can be used to get back some of the money you spend on tuition or loan interest, or to maximize your college savings." Below this is a link: "Learn About Tax Benefits".
- Need to make a correction?: A section with a question mark icon, text: "Start a correction to revise your form if you need to update or change information (such as adding an additional school). Visit the FAFSA Form Answers tab to review your responses and make sure all the information you provided is correct." Below this is a blue button: "Make a Correction".
- View All of Your Federal Student Aid In One Place: A section with text: "View detailed information about your federal student loan and grant aid, including your enrollment history, payment history, and subsidized usage." Below this is a button: "Visit My Aid".
- Find the Right College or Career School: A section with text: "Use College Scorecard to compare schools by size, location, graduation rate, and more." Below this is a button: "Visit College Scorecard" with an external link icon.

At the bottom right, there is an illustration of a person looking at a smartphone in front of a school building.

More Resources

Lastly, along the right side of the FAFSA Submission Summary, the student can access additional resources, including links to "My Aid" or College Scorecard.
